

WILBERFORCE CAYMAN CONFERENCE & DRINKS PARTY

Tuesday 18 September 2018

3.45pm – 6.30pm followed by drinks
Venue: Ritz Carlton Grand Cayman
2.0 CPD

Timetable

3.45pm	Registration
4.00pm	Opening remarks
4.05pm	Deriving the best from your company Lexa Hilliard QC and James Bailey		Panel 3: Acting for non-redeemers in an insolvent winding up Lexa Hilliard QC and Clare Stanley QC
	– Remembering the philosophy behind derivative actions		– Where are they in the order of priorities?
	– A consideration of some of the recent developments in the application of this type of claim		– When can they climb up that list and claim as unsecured creditors?
		4.55pm	Break
4.25pm	PANEL SESSIONS (PLEASE SELECT ONE)	5.20pm	PANEL SESSIONS (PLEASE SELECT ONE) Panel sessions at 4.25pm will be repeated at 5.20pm therefore alternative choices are recommended.
	Panel 1: Welcome to Area 51: a practical look at the modern law of conspiracy Gilead Cooper QC, Tiffany Scott QC and Tom Roscoe	5.50pm	Fraud, illegality and tracing: lessons from the Saad litigation Jack Watson
	– The breadth of “unlawful means”		– Proprietary claims
	– The necessary intent to injure		– The Highwayman’s case in a modern setting
	– Conflict of laws issues		– Jurisdiction and timing
	– Interrelation with other economic torts
	Panel 2: Attacking exercises of discretion in the commercial context: contracts, trusts and other fiduciaries Jonathan Hilliard QC and Bobby Friedman	6.10pm	Fair value assessments of companies under s.238 of the Companies Law Tom Lowe QC
	– Controlling broad discretions under contracts: Braganza and the fall-out		– Tom will discuss valuation issues arising under s.238
	– Commercial trusts: duties of non-fiduciary powerholders	6.30pm	Closing followed by drinks reception
	– Using improper purpose to attack exercises of powers: where do Eclairs and British Airways leave us?

There is no charge for attending this conference.

To confirm your panel choices and for further information, please contact Hayley Eustace at seminars@wilberforce.co.uk or +44 (0)207 306 0102