Practice Overview

Andrew's practice covers commercial and traditional chancery work. Within these fields, he has particularly strong interests in trusts, pensions, fraud and breach of fiduciary duties, professional liability, company and partnership disputes. He is also often brought into to assist with cases involving other areas of the law most notably family, insolvency and regulatory proceedings.

Andrew enjoys both the advisory and advocacy sides of his practice and is experienced in the main forms of alternative dispute resolution.

In recent times, Andrew has gained significant experience of working on so-called 'big money' divorce cases involving the treatment of trust assets. He has also been instructed in many of the recent leading pension cases especially those considering the use of The Pensions Regulator's powers.

Many of Andrew's cases involve an international element, particularly in the context of trust disputes or fraud cases, and he has been admitted to the Bar of the Cayman Islands where he has appeared as an advocate. In the past few years, Andrew has been engaged on matters concerning proceedings in Jersey, the Isle of Man, Cyprus, Switzerland, Singapore, Bermuda, Nevis, the British Virgin Islands, several states of the USA and the Cayman Islands.

The recent Chambers & Partners 2020 describes him as “an intellectually strong, exceptionally bright barrister who is also a good team player”. It also describes Andrew as “superb” and “first-rate” who “works extremely hard and is all over the detail of the matter”.

A well-liked barrister who is effective in fraud and breach of fiduciary duty cases. He is admired for the quality of his advice and advocacy and often appears unled in significant cases.

Andrew adroitly handles a diverse range of traditional and commercial chancery matters, demonstrating considerable strength in cases concerning trusts, professional liability and company law. "He's excellent with clients, excellent to work with and a talented guy." He is also known for his expertise with regard to the treatment of trust assets in high-value divorce cases.

According to the most recent Legal 500 2020 edition, Andrew "gets to the heart of the problem quickly, communicates complex ideas clearly and succinctly, and develops a good rapport with clients".

Trusts, Tax, Probate and Estates

Andrew has significant experience of trust-related matters (both offshore and onshore). The majority of his work is contentious but he also regularly advises in non-contentious matters.

Over recent years, he has applied his knowledge of trust law and fiduciary obligations to differing contexts, in particular divorce proceedings, commercial disputes and corporate transactions.

Recent notable matters that Andrew has worked on include the following:

- Re Longleat Estate. Andrew acted for a professional trustee in litigation over the terms on which he should retire as a trustee.
- In the matter of an Application for Information about a Trust. Andrew was instructed in these Bermudian proceedings for a beneficiary seeking information about the administration of a trust which contains a provision restricting disclosure in the trust instrument. The case was due to be heard by the Privy Council but settled shortly before the hearing.
- Charman v Charman. Court of Appeal decision involving the largest-ever contested divorce award in England and Wales which considered the extent to which the assets of an offshore discretionary trust should be taken into account for ancillary relief purposes
- Rybolouleva v Ryboloulev. Acting for a husband in satellite litigation arising out of divorce proceedings in Geneva and involving trust and related issues. The divorce award made by the Swiss Court was in the sum of around 4 billion Swiss francs.
- Advising in respect of several other confidential divorce cases which involve trusts, conflicts of law, enforcement issues and interim relief.
- In the matter of an Isle of Man Trust. Andrew acted for the trustee of an Isle of Man trust in proceedings in the Isle of Man courts which sought various declarations and the 'blessing' or a momentous decision proposed by the trustee.
- Al-Bassam v Al-Bassam. Long-running dispute involving issues of probate, succession, domicile, conflict of laws and forgery of a will and marriage certificate.
- Advising in respect of an ongoing investigation by the SEC, IRS and New York District Attorney into a series of settlements administered in the Isle of Man.
- Advising on the appropriate drafting of an IPO prospectus which required the disclosure of various interests under settlements.
- Acting and advising in respect of cases under the Inheritance (Provision for Family and Dependents) Act 1975.
