Practice Overview

Ben has a commercial Chancery practice, with a particular emphasis on property and pensions work, and related professional negligence, although he also has wide experience in all of Chambers' other core areas, including insolvency, company, contractual disputes, trusts, wills and probate and other private client matters, and general commercial disputes.

He enjoys acting on his own account, or as a junior as part of a large team.

Ben joined Chambers in 2009 following the completion of his pupillage.

In 2018 Ben was one of three nominated by Chambers & Partners as Real Estate Junior of the Year. Chambers & Partners 2018 recognises his reputation for acting in "high-profile, complex property litigation", for his "user-friendly approach and attention to detail" and for his "commercially minded" approach to cases. In October 2018 he will appear in the Supreme Court, led by Joanne Wicks QC, in S Franses Ltd v Cavendish Hotel (London) Ltd, a case concerning 'ground (f)' under the Landlord & Tenant Act 1954.

In pensions work, having acted in the high-profile IBM pensions litigation, the legal directories describe Ben as a recognised junior building a solid reputation in the area, who is as likely to appear in cases as sole counsel as he is to appear led by a silk. "He is a very bright guy who is very hard-working and very easy to deal with". "He is exceedingly user-friendly and charming to work with". (Chambers & Partners, 2016).

The Legal 500, 2018 describe him as "extremely diligent, hardworking and able to spot the opponent's oversights".

Ben has been recommended in Chambers & Partners since 2013, and Legal 500 since 2015. Other comments from clients include that he is "A strong and confident advocate who is well regarded by peers and clients", "Bright, commercial, easy to work with and responsive", "recognised for his diligence and client-focused approach" and that he has "impressed solicitors with his tremendous work ethic and mastery of the facts".

“A strong and confident advocate... Bright, commercial, easy to work with and responsive”

Professional Liability

Ben regularly accepts instructions in professional negligence matters, particularly those in the property and pensions fields. He acts both on his own account, or as a junior in more substantial matters.

Notable recent instructions include:

- Acting unled for trustee services providers in a legally complex claim against them for their failure to detect that their client's emails had been hacked.
- Acting unled in a claim brought against conveyancing solicitors brought by purchasers of property who had been tricked by identity fraudsters.
- Acting for an IFA in a claim brought against him by an ex-professional footballer, for allegedly failing to preserve his favourable retirement age.
- Acting for solicitors in defending a claim brought against them for their alleged failure to equalise a pension scheme effectively.
- Herrmann v Withers [2012] EWHC 1492 (Ch). A successful claim brought against residential property conveyancers, which raised difficult issues of mitigation of loss (led by Jonathan Seitler QC).
- Ben is also a contributor to the Pension Scheme Actuaries chapter in Professional Negligence and Liability looseleaf.
