Practice Overview

Bobby is a much in demand senior junior. He is described in the legal directories as a "rising star" who is "staggeringly clever" and "noted for his advocacy capabilities and the practical approach he takes to cases."

Bobby specialises in general commercial disputes, with an emphasis on civil fraud – with extensive experience of freezing injunctions, as well as Russian/CIS disputes; company and insolvency; commercial trusts; commercial pensions disputes; energy/mining; and art-related disputes with a commercial angle.

Bobby appears regularly in both the Commercial and Chancery Courts as well as in arbitrations. He has substantial offshore experience and is called in the BVI.

Bobby enjoys working as sole counsel (or leading a junior); he frequently appears unled, often against silks, or silk and junior teams, in high-value and complicated matters. He also enjoys acting as a junior on substantial disputes (either as sole junior, or as the senior junior in a larger team). Bobby's experience involves acting in some of the most high-profile and high value cases of recent years.

Bobby has also acted as an expert, determining disputes between parties by way of alternative dispute resolution.

Bobby recognises the importance of a detailed and analytical approach, and combines this with pragmatism and tenacity.

Other directory recommendations include that he is "enthusiastic and technically excellent", "unafraid to make difficult calls and he portrays a confidence that belies his years"; is "very consistent and authoritative" in his advice; and has a "tenacious advocacy style." Other comments include that Bobby "is fun to work with, super clever and incredibly responsive"; and that "He is a very good junior who gives very efficient and effective service, and has strong advocacy skills."

- Acting in a number of LME arbitrations, including successfully acting for a trading company seeking relief for non-delivery of copper concentrate (2019), and representing a trading company in a dispute relating to want of title (ongoing).
- Bobby has expertise in pensions and frequently acts in pensions cases involving pensions liberation, fraud and/or in pensions regulatory proceedings, particularly concerning the removal of trustees.

Commercial

Bobby is a busy and successful commercial practitioner.

He has extensive experience of general commercial disputes, with a particular interest and expertise in civil fraud (with substantial experience of obtaining and responding to freezing injunctions and of other interim commercial remedies such as Norwich Pharmacal relief). Bobby is also often instructed on company and partnership matters.

Bobby’s work often includes an international element. Many of his cases relate to Russia/ CIS, and he has been instructed in numerous offshore jurisdictions. He is also a member of the BVI bar.

Bobby appears frequently in the Commercial Court; dealing with commercial matters in the Chancery Division; and in arbitrations. He is well-suited to the demands of commercial work, and combines intellectual rigour with the tenacity needed to deal with high-value and complex claims.
