Practice Overview

Bobby is a much in demand senior junior. He is described in the legal directories as a “rising star” who is “staggeringly clever” and “noted for his advocacy capabilities and the practical approach he takes to cases.”

Bobby specialises in general commercial disputes, with an emphasis on civil fraud – with extensive experience of freezing injunctions, as well as Russian/CIS disputes; company and insolvency; commercial trusts; commercial pensions disputes; energy/mining; and art-related disputes with a commercial angle.

Bobby appears regularly in both the Commercial and Chancery Courts as well as in arbitrations. He has substantial offshore experience and is called in the BVI.

Bobby enjoys working as sole counsel (or leading a junior); he frequently appears unled, often against silks, or silk and junior teams, in high-value and complicated matters. He also enjoys acting as a junior on substantial disputes (either as sole junior, or as the senior junior in a larger team). Bobby's experience involves acting in some of the most high-profile and high value cases of recent years.

Bobby has also acted as an expert, determining disputes between parties by way of alternative dispute resolution.

Bobby recognises the importance of a detailed and analytical approach, and combines this with pragmatism and tenacity.

Other directory recommendations include that he is “enthusiastic and technically excellent”, “unafraid to make difficult calls and he portrays a confidence that belies his years”; is “very consistent and authoritative” in his advice; and has a “tenacious advocacy style.” Other comments include that Bobby “is fun to work with, super clever and incredibly responsive”; and that “He is a very good junior who gives very efficient and effective service, and has strong advocacy skills.”

- Acting as a junior in the major litigation between the city brokerages BGC and Tradition, which settled during a 3-week trial in late 2019.
- Acting as sole counsel in an ICC arbitration (award awaited).
- Successfully resisting the enforcement of an arbitration award worth some $3 billion, in the Commercial Court: Gazprom v Naftogaz [2019] 2 Lloyd’s Rep. 20.
- BVI proceedings concerning whether a trust of shares in a very high-profile Ukrainian company is a fraud (ongoing).
- Acting in a number of LME arbitrations, including successfully acting for a trading company seeking relief for non-delivery of copper concentrate (2019), and representing a trading company in a dispute relating to want of title (ongoing).
- Bobby has expertise in pensions and frequently acts in pensions cases involving pensions liberation, fraud and/or in pensions regulatory proceedings, particularly concerning the removal of trustees.

Pensions

Bobby is “a rising star” of the pensions bar who is “excellent on paper and a punchy advocate, with a very good knowledge of pensions and related areas of law.” Bobby “has acted in some of the most high-profile pensions disputes and trials” (Chambers and Partners). Bobby has extensive experience across all areas of the field, with a particular emphasis on pensions liberation, fraud and trustee replacement. He has also successfully obtained a number of trustee prohibitions.

Recent matters of note include:

- Acting for a major power network in relation to a fraud claim concerning its pension scheme (ongoing).
- Successfully acting in numerous prohibition proceedings, including Salih v TPR [2018] UKUT 0338 (TCC), and others ongoing.
- Acting for the targets in high profile moral hazard proceedings including in GPG, Brunel and Staveley, and Silentnight.

Pensions continued

- Advising a pension scheme administrator on the release of funds under a freezing injunction.
- In respect of pensions liberation, Bobby appeared as a junior in Pi v The Pensions Regulator and Dalriada v Nidd Vale Trustees Limited determining whether a number of pension schemes were occupational pension schemes within Pension Schemes Act 1993. He has also acted for the Pensions Regulator obtaining worldwide freezing injunctions and trustee appointments under the Regulator's powers and the court's inherent jurisdiction.
- Bobby continues to act in a wide range of pensions professional negligence claims.
