Practice Overview

James is an experienced QC providing advice and advocacy services across a wide range of commercial fields, including business and financial contracts, banking, company, insolvency, financial services, civil fraud, professional negligence, real estate and contentious trust matters.

Disputes and issues arising, directly or indirectly, from the ownership or exploitation of real property assets feature particularly prominently in James's work.

Much of James's work has an international dimension with cases involving jurisdictions as diverse as BVI, Cayman Islands, Channel Islands, Cyprus, South Africa, Netherlands, Isle of Man, Gibraltar, New York and Ukraine.

James is currently ranked in the legal directories (Chambers & Partners, Chambers Global and/or Legal 500) in the following fields:

- Commercial (Chancery)
- Financial Services
- Real Estate Litigation
- Professional Liability
- International & Offshore.

Recent editions of the directories describe him as: "a very good, strong QC. He's shown himself to be pretty adept at handling the commercial strategy as well as the law". "He's simply outstanding; he's very bright and user-friendly. He provides measured and balanced advice and is a persuasive advocate." (Chambers & Partners 2020); "A great QC to have in a crisis, and is more than willing to roll up his sleeves and get stuck in". He "understands the need to bring the client along with him in the direction of his advice." (Legal 500 2020). He is "very, very good to work with", "very user-friendly", "extremely good in court", "very good at reading judges and anticipating what they will say", "a fantastic mind", "very knowledgeable", "good strategically", and giving "concise advice which saves time and instils confidence" (Chambers & Partners 2019); "great with clients", "strong strategically", having an "excellent advocacy style", "very commercial", and "pro-active and hardworking" (Legal 500 2019).

James has been listed in the directories for commercial chancery work for many years. Chambers & Partners 2020 notes the breadth of his commercial chancery practice and describes him as "simply outstanding; he's very bright and user-friendly. He provides measured and balanced advice and is a persuasive advocate." "He's a very good, strong QC. He's shown himself to be pretty adept at handling the commercial strategy as well as the law." Chambers & Partners 2019 also describes him as "extremely good in court", "very good at reading judges and anticipating what they are going to say", "good strategically" and "strong" on drafting.

Much of James's commercial work has offshore or cross-border elements. Some representative cases include:

- acting for Russian joint venture partner in successful defence of BVI proceedings for alleged misrepresentations in relation to establishment of joint venture vehicle;
- acting in BVI proceedings for setting aside of statutory demand served on joint venture company on grounds of prospective inability to pay US$6 million loan note;
- acting for Dubai and Brunei investors in LCIA arbitration concerning alleged breaches of hotel management agreement in respect of hotel in Saudi Arabia;
- acting for defendant to US$30m claim by Cayman- and Netherlands Antilles-based hedge fund vehicles;
- advising Jersey financial regulator regarding responsibility of overseas firms operating through serviced offices and other facilities in Jersey;
- advising in relation to alleged misappropriation of Ukrainian media interests and enforcement of US judgment against Cypriot company (owned by Channel Islands trust) to which such interests had been transferred.

The international dimension in James's commercial work is reflected in his listing for offshore work in the directories. Chambers & Partners 2019 describes him as "truly international in his scope" and "very user-friendly, very knowledgeable and someone who provides clear advice". The Legal 500 also notes the range of his offshore work.
