Practice Overview

Joanne has a broad commercial chancery practice with an emphasis on property litigation and related professional negligence. She is ranked Band 1 of Leading Silks for Real Estate Litigation by Chambers & Partners 2019, which says “she has the ability to cut through the issues and be pragmatic and commercial.” “She is an asset to any legal team and is an absolute pleasure to work with.” “An excellent advocate and an enviable opponent for all who come up against her.” She was also ranked Band 1 in Chambers & Partners 2018 for Real Estate Litigation, being described as having a “fine reputation as a top real estate QC” and is “a joy to work with, really approachable and excellent at problem solving”. The Legal 500 2019 edition describe Joanne as “trustworthy and reliable, as well as being technically excellent”. She was also rated as one of the most highly regarded silks for Real Estate in Who's Who Legal UK Bar 2018, which says “she's absolutely excellent”. Other advocates describe her as “a court opponent I would treat with the utmost caution and respect”. Joanne was named The Times' 'Lawyer of the Week' in March 2019 for her work on the case of Canary Wharf (BP4) T1 Ltd v European Medicines Agency.

Joanne's strength is the ability to combine intellectual rigour with a good understanding of her clients' commercial interests and a determination to find the best way to serve them. She is recognised for the quality of her courtroom skills and her ability to deliver advice on the most complex of problems in a clear and client-friendly manner.

As well as appearing in courts and tribunals at every level, Joanne has very considerable experience of arbitrations and expert determinations, having acted in a substantial number of cases resolved by these means in recent years. She accepts instructions to act as an arbitrator or an independent expert in her specialist practice areas and also advises non-lawyer arbitrators and independent experts, as well as routinely acting as an advocate in arbitration or expert determination proceedings. Joanne is also an accredited mediator.

Commercial

Almost all of Joanne's work is, in the broadest sense, commercial, involving business clients engaged in resolving disputes about commercial issues. The focus is always on achieving corporate goals, whether through litigation, alternative dispute resolution or transactional advice.

Joanne advises on and acts for clients in relation to litigation about commercial contracts, joint ventures and other business structures and issues arising out of the acquisition or disposal of corporate interests. Her chancery expertise and property specialism enable her to advise on banking and financial transactions and act in related disputes, particularly those concerning property finance, mortgages and guarantees.

Joanne's business and commercial practice includes:

- Asset tracing
- Banking and finance
- Civil fraud
- Commercial arbitration
- Joint venture and partnership disputes

Recent/notable cases include:

- Acting for Canary Wharf Group in successfully resisting the claim by the European Medicines Agency that the Agency's 25-year lease of premises in Canary Wharf will be frustrated when the UK leaves the EU (Canary Wharf (BP4) T1 Ltd v European Medicines Agency [2019] EWHC 335 (Ch)).
- A claim for breach of warranty in respect of a sale of mortgage assets as part of a securitisation (Lehman Commercial Mortgage Conduit Ltd v Northern Rock (Asset Management) Plc).
- Acting in a series of adjudications between a PFI contractor and its subcontractor in relation to disrepair claims totalling more than £10m in respect of a portfolio of 300+ properties occupied by government departments.
- Advising a company on its potential liability to a prospective joint venture partner once the relationship soured.
- Advising on the effect on creditors of conversions of limited companies to industrial and provident societies/co-operative and community benefit societies and transfers of engagements between those entities.
