Practice Overview

Anna has a commercial chancery practice with a particular focus on civil fraud and insolvency disputes. She is recommended as a leading junior in her field in Chambers & Partners in which she is described as a “talented junior” with clients praising her “no nonsense” approach (Chambers & Partners 2018: Commercial Chancery).

As well as being instructed as a junior to leading counsel, Anna regularly appears as sole counsel on trials and interim applications (including freezing and ancillary orders). She also has substantial experience in dealing with cases involving conflict of laws and jurisdictional issues.

Anna undertakes work both in England & Wales and offshore and has recently acted in cases in Bermuda, the Isle of Man and the Caribbean.

Offshore

A significant amount of Anna's practice involves litigation in offshore jurisdictions, including in Bermuda, the Caribbean, Isle of Man, Gibraltar and Channel Islands.

She is currently acting in high value trusts litigation in the Bermudian courts (led by Brian Green QC), involving issues of both company and trusts law.

She has recently acted in the Grand Court of Cayman in a claim brought by the liquidators of the Weaving Macro Fixed Income Fund, a Cayman hedge fund which collapsed due to the multi-million dollar fraud of its founder, Magnus Peterson, against the fund's auditors.

She also acted in the largest case ever to have been litigated in the Isle of Man, AK Investment v Kyrgyz Mobil Tel Ltd (the “Bitel litigation”), a case involving allegations of fraudulent misappropriation in relation to a Kyrgyz telecoms operator.
