

Nevis Seminar & Lunch

Friday 21 September 2018
11.30am – 2.00pm (1.0 CPD)
The Four Seasons Resort, Nevis

Programme

- 11.30am Registration and refreshments
- 11.45am Welcome and introduction
- 11.50am Trustees' mistakes: the offshore experience
Michael Ashdown
- Is a breach of fiduciary duty required? M v St Anne's Trustees
 - Recent offshore developments in mistake
 - Codified Hastings-Bass rules: Bermuda, Bahamas and Jersey – and Cayman next?
- 12.05pm Recent developments in proprietary claims and attacking and defending trusts
Jonathan Hilliard QC
- How far can proprietary claims go when you don't have visibility over where the money has gone?
 - Cayman and Bermudan developments in defending trusts from attack
 - Proprietary injunctions vs freezing injunctions in multi-jurisdictional trust and fraud claims
- 12.20pm Defending claims against surveyors
Mark Wonnacott QC, Tiffany Scott QC and Tom Roscoe
- To whom are duties owed?
 - Can you be wrong but not negligent?
 - Can you be negligent but not wrong (enough)? The relevance of the "bracket"
 - Recent developments in calculation of loss – Hughes-Holland v BPE Solicitors [2017] UKSC 21
 - Contributory negligence: is there anyone else to blame?
- 1.00pm Buffet lunch will be served