

Daniel Petrides

Call: 2018

dpetrides@wilberforce.co.uk

Clerks' Details

+44 (0)20 7306 0102
practicemanagers@wilberforce.co.uk

Qualifications and Appointments

- MA in History, Jesus College, Cambridge (Starred Double First, placed top of year)
- MPhil in Political Thought and Intellectual History, Jesus College, Cambridge
- GDL, City, University of London (Distinction)
- BPTC LLM in Legal Practice, City, University of London (Commendation)
- Awarded numerous college and university prizes
- Lord Bowen and Lord Denning Scholar of Lincoln's Inn

Memberships

- Property Bar Association
- Chancery Bar Association
- COMBAR
- Commercial Fraud Lawyers Association

Practice Overview

Daniel already has a thriving commercial chancery practice spanning all of Chambers' core practice areas. He frequently appears as sole counsel in both the High Court and the County Court, as well as retaining a focus on drafting and advisory work. Many of his cases have an international dimension, and he has experience of ADR procedures including arbitration. Equally comfortable acting alone or as part of a larger team, notable recent experience includes:

- A long-running multi-staged rent review arbitration, thought to be the largest in English legal history, relating to an £8 billion property portfolio and culminating in two three-week hearings before a former Supreme Court judge in 2020 and 2021. (Led by Joanne Wicks QC, Philip Rainey QC and Adam Rosenthal QC).
- Acting for the claimant in Vneshprombank LLC v Bedzhamov, a £1.3 billion fraud claim arising from the insolvency of a Russian bank and subsequent investigation by the Russian DIA. (Led by Alan Gourgey QC, Andrew Mold QC, Stephen Brown and Jack Watson).
- Defending a complex claim for termination payments under an asset management agreement relating to a £270m property portfolio (Led by Joanne Wicks QC and Jonathan Chew).
- Seeking urgent Injunctive relief in the High Court against the liquidators of a company.
- Successfully obtaining declarations in High Court trial as to the true ownership of shares in a technology company following the dismissal of a founding member. (Led by James Bailey QC).
- Defending a claim for fraudulent misrepresentation in relation to a Share Purchase Agreement of the shares in a Luxembourg financial services company.
- Defending three directors of an insolvent company from claims for breach of fiduciary duty by its liquidators.
- Resisting enforcement of an Iraqi judgment.
- An appeal to the High Court concerning the refusal of an application to adjourn a trial based on medical evidence (Morgan v Egan [2020] EWHC 1025 (QB)). (Led by Gilead Cooper QC).

Before studying law, Daniel read History at Jesus College, Cambridge and graduated with a starred double first, coming top of his year. He was awarded numerous college and university prizes during his degree. He stayed on at Cambridge to complete an MPhil in Political Thought and Intellectual History as a Goh-Coupe postgraduate scholar at Jesus College, also representing his college on University Challenge that year.

---

Practice Overview continued

Daniel obtained a distinction in the GDL at City, University of London, and a commendation in the BPTC LLM in Legal Practice, also at City. While completing his legal studies, Daniel volunteered for the School Exclusion Project, representing the parents of children excluded from school at hearings before boards of governors and local authorities, and the Company Insolvency Pro Bono Scheme which provides representation for litigants in person appearing in the Companies Court Winding Up List.

Daniel is also a Lord Bowen and Lord Denning scholar of Lincoln's Inn, and a recipient of the Hardwicke Entrance Award.

Pensions

Daniel enjoys the intricacies of pensions law and is developing a broad practice in this area.

Relevant experience includes:

- (As a pupil) assisting on application for Beddoe relief by the trustees of the (old) British Airways pension scheme to pursue an appeal to the Supreme Court (Airways Pension Scheme Trustee Ltd v (1) Fielder & (2) British Airways Plc [2019] EWHC 29 (Ch)).
- (As a pupil) assisting in advising on numerous aspects of pensions law, including challenges to trustees' exercise of powers, equalisation of benefits, the use of reservoir trusts, and amendments to scheme rules.
- (As a pupil) assisting with a number of professional negligence claims against pensions trustees or their advisors.

Daniel is also, along with Michael Tennet QC and Jonathan Hilliard QC, an editor of the chapter on actuaries in Simpson's Professional Negligence and Liability Looseleaf.