

Daniel Petrides

Call: 2018

dpetrides@wilberforce.co.uk

Clerks' Details

+44 (0)20 7306 0102
practicemanagers@wilberforce.co.uk

Qualifications and Appointments

- MA in History, Jesus College, Cambridge (Starred Double First, placed top of year)
- MPhil in Political Thought and Intellectual History, Jesus College, Cambridge
- GDL, City, University of London (Distinction)
- BPTC LLM in Legal Practice, City, University of London (Commendation)
- Awarded numerous college and university prizes
- Lord Bowen and Lord Denning Scholar of Lincoln's Inn

Memberships

- Property Bar Association
- Chancery Bar Association
- COMBAR
- Commercial Fraud Lawyers Association

Practice Overview

Daniel is developing a diverse commercial chancery practice spanning all of Chambers' core practice areas. He frequently appears as sole counsel in both the High Court and the County Court, as well as retaining a focus on drafting and advisory work. Many of his cases have an international dimension, and he has experience of ADR procedures including arbitration. Equally comfortable acting alone or as part of a larger team, notable recent experience includes:

- Acting (led by Joanne Wicks QC and Adam Rosenthal QC) in a long-running multi-staged rent review arbitration in relation to an £8 billion property portfolio, culminating in a thirteen-day hearing in July 2020 involving extensive cross-examination of expert witnesses. Daniel's ongoing role involves a particular focus on questions of public law.
- A contested security for costs application in a £1.3 billion fraud claim arising from the insolvency of a Russian bank and subsequent investigation by the Russian DIA (Vneshprombank LLC v Bedzhamov [2019] EWHC 3616 (Ch)). (Led by Andrew Mold QC).
- Defending a complex claim for termination payments under an asset management agreement relating to a £270m property portfolio (led by Joanne Wicks QC and Jonathan Chew).
- Seeking (as sole counsel) urgent injunctive relief in relation to a claim for relief from forfeiture of mixed-use premises.
- An appeal to the High Court concerning the refusal of an application to adjourn a trial based on medical evidence (Morgan v Egan [2020] EWHC 1025 (QB)). (Led by Gilead Cooper QC).
- Successfully acting in a High Court trial arising from the dismissal of the founding member of a technology company (Glass v Prewise Ltd (2018)) (led by James Bailey QC).
- Defending a claim for fraudulent misrepresentation in relation to a Share Purchase Agreement for the shares in a Luxembourg financial services company (ongoing).
- Bringing a claim to enforce payment of a debt secured on commercial premises in Newcastle (led by Jonathan Seidler QC) (ongoing).

Before studying law, Daniel read History at Jesus College, Cambridge and graduated with a starred double first, coming top of his year. He was awarded numerous college and university prizes during his degree. He stayed on at Cambridge to complete an MPhil in Political Thought and Intellectual History as a Goh-Coupe postgraduate scholar at Jesus College, also representing his college on University Challenge that year.

Practice Overview continued

Daniel obtained a distinction in the GDL at City, University of London, and a commendation in the BPTC LLM in Legal Practice, also at City. While completing his legal studies, Daniel volunteered for the School Exclusion Project, representing the parents of children excluded from school at hearings before boards of governors and local authorities, and the Company Insolvency Pro Bono Scheme which provides representation for litigants in person appearing in the Companies Court Winding Up List.

Daniel is also a Lord Bowen and Lord Denning scholar of Lincoln's Inn, and a recipient of the Hardwicke Entrance Award.

Daniel joined Chambers in September 2019 on successful completion of his pupillage. His supervisors were Zoë Barton QC, Jonathan Hilliard QC, James Bailey QC, Fenner Moeran QC, Benjamin Faulkner and Jonathan Chew.

Trusts, Tax, Probate and Estates

Daniel is developing a broad private client practice spanning both contentious and non-contentious matters. He also retains an interest in the intersection between the law of trusts and other areas of law.

Examples of relevant experience include:

- Advising in relation to a claim for breach of trust against trustees based in the Isle of Man.
- Advising on the payability of SDLT by public bodies entering into leases for specific purposes.
- (As a pupil) assisting on a number of cases involving complex questions of international succession law, including cases concerning the existence of a constructive trust over Liberian bearer shares in a Greek company, and conflicting wills in four jurisdictions including Hong Kong and Malaysia.
- (As a pupil) assisting on the first case in which trustees were granted Beddoe relief to pursue an appeal to the Supreme Court (Airways Pension Scheme Trustee Ltd v (1) Fielder & (2) British Airways Plc [2019] EWHC 29 (Ch)).
- (As a pupil) assisting with both bringing and defending claims under the Inheritance (Family and Dependents) Act 1975.
- (As a pupil) assisting in advising on the construction of a trust provision dealing with the distribution of assets following the death of a beneficiary.